Right of Withdrawal and Returns Policy – Blue Coin

Consumers generally have the right to withdraw from a distance purchase within 14 days without giving any reason.

The withdrawal period begins on the day the buyer, or a designated third party other than the carrier, receives the goods. Where items from one order are delivered separately, the period begins upon receipt of the final item.

To exercise the right of withdrawal, the buyer must inform us before the deadline by an unequivocal statement sent by email or letter.

Returns

Goods that do not meet the buyer's expectations may be subject to withdrawal within 14 days after receipt, in accordance with the statutory right of withdrawal.

After notifying us of withdrawal, the buyer must return the goods within a further 14 days.

The direct cost of return shipping is borne by the buyer.

Coins and other collectibles must be carefully packaged and should preferably be returned in their original coin holders.

Removing coins from their original holders may result in a deduction for diminished value where handling exceeds what is necessary to inspect the goods.

Complaints concerning condition, description, completeness or authenticity should preferably be reported within 14 days after receipt. Statutory warranty rights remain unaffected.

Coin lots and items purchased through bids are not automatically excluded from the statutory right of withdrawal solely because of their sale format. Applicable statutory exceptions remain in force.

Effects of Withdrawal

Following a valid withdrawal, we will refund the purchase price and the cost of the least expensive standard delivery option offered.

Additional costs resulting from the buyer's choice of a more expensive delivery method will not be refunded.

Refunds will be made within 14 days after receipt of the withdrawal notice, using the original payment method unless otherwise agreed.

We may withhold reimbursement until the returned goods have been received or evidence of return shipment has been provided.

Exceptions

The statutory right of withdrawal does not apply to goods whose prices depend on financial market fluctuations beyond our control that may occur during the withdrawal period, provided all statutory conditions are met.

Any applicable exclusion will be communicated before the purchase is completed.

Statutory rights concerning defective or non-conforming goods remain unaffected.
